

Milwaukee

MAGAZINE

TIM MCMURTRY, 37
Account Executive, Mueller
Communications

The one-time assistant to Common Council President Willie Hines is well-connected politically and has become a key operative for Mueller Communications. His high success rate with clients can be attributed to an analytical nature, explains H. Carl Mueller, president and owner of the communications company. “What I like about Tim is that he’s always thinking and always asking questions,” says Mueller.

McMurtry also gives back to the community as a youth pastor at the World Outreach & Bible Training Center and by serving on the boards of Milwaukee World Festival, the Potawatomi Community Foundation’s advisory committee, and the Serenity Inn, a mission of the Milwaukee Lutheran Coalition.

Milwaukee, says McMurtry, could be the next great American city. “It’s poised to take the next step,” he says. (EH)