

Bubbler Executive of the Week

Name: H. Carl Mueller

Title: President

Company: Mueller Communications, Inc.

Company address: 1749 N. Prospect Ave., Milwaukee, WI 53202

Company web site: <http://www.muellercommunications.com>

Industry: Communications: Public Relations, marketing, public affairs

Education: Graduate of the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee; graduate work at both the University of Wisconsin-Madison, and University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee; professional training at the American Press Institute at Columbia University and at Medill School of Journalism at Northwestern University

Family: Daughters Erika, Kirsten, Anna and sons Carl, John and Isaiah

Hobbies and Interests: Antiques, camping, writing

Favorite book and/or movie: Book: "The Brothers Karamazov;" Movie: Casablanca

Favorite musician/band: Eric Clapton / Cream

Favorite place to visit/vacation: Door County

Favorite local restaurant: Mimma's Café' on Brady Street

Words to live by: "Always do the right thing."

What is your core philosophy for doing business? "Strive to do your best at all things and stay focused on the best results for the people you serve."

Who is your role model and why? "Roger Fitzsimonds – he was a true professional who cared about people above everything."

What was the funniest thing that has ever happened to you? "When I was press secretary to the governor, I was late for a briefing at the White House and Marty Stein had to help sneak me in a secret way. To this day no one knows how he did it and I won't tell."