THE IMPORTANCE OF PLANNING

HOW DID YOU RATE?

ANY “NO” RESPONSE IS AN AREA OF VULNERABILITY.

- If you do have a crisis plan in place, make sure:
 - It is up-to-date
 - Team members are ready
- Put two simple tools in place:
 - Free media/social monitoring
 - Media protocol

CRISIS

Crisis severity is tied to the “lead-time” you will have in preparing your response and the likelihood that a member of the media will show up on site.

SEVERITY

LEVEL 1: MOST SEVERE

Workplace homicide, accidental workplace death, serious injury, violence

LEVEL 2: SEVERE

Major damage, building accident, weather disaster

LEVEL 3: MODERATE

Breach of confidential information, personal / sexual assault allegations, major burglary

LEVEL 4: MILD

Scandal, malicious rumor or slander, vandalism / theft

LEVEL 5: LOW

Delay in delivery of services / products, leave of absence, loss of equipment

HOW DID YOU RATE?

ANY “NO” RESPONSE IS AN AREA OF VULNERABILITY.

- If you do have a crisis plan in place, make sure:
 - It is up-to-date
 - Team members are ready
- Put two simple tools in place:
 - Free media/social monitoring
 - Media protocol

MEDIA PROTOCOL

A media protocol is not meant to stifle an employee's right to speak to the media, but is designed to ensure that comments made to the media are timely and accurate.

Media inquiries must be responded to in a way that is clear, concise, accurate and timely to help ensure the media reports accurate information and offers a balanced view of the issue.

To ensure an accurate and timely message, statements should only be made by designated and trained individuals.

What to do if you are approached by the media:

- Ask for the names and affiliations of the individual
- Say: "I am sorry, the person you should speak with is not available at this time. Please give me your name and number and the appropriate person will get back to you promptly."
- Report the contact to the appropriate spokesperson

SOCIAL MEDIA

Key Considerations:

- How are you monitoring social media mentions?
- Do you have a protocol in place for when and how to respond?
- Who has control of your platforms?
- Are you taking simple steps to protect your accounts from hijacking?

WHEN A CRISIS HITS

CRISIS IN 2020

THE COVID-19 CRISIS

- Safety, flexibility, empathy

BLACK LIVES MATTER AND SOCIAL UNREST

- Is your position genuine, and consistent with your policies and actions in the past?

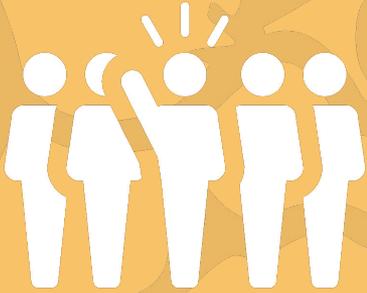

NO WIN SITUATIONS

- Can't we support both teachers AND parents?

“CANCEL CULTURE”

- What is it, and what you can do

LEADERSHIP MATTERS

- Surviving the first hours of a crisis or high publicity incident sets the tone
- When poorly handled, it can destroy reputations
- Handling a situation insensitively or not at all can escalate visibility, costs or damage
- How you handle a crisis has a residual effect on every aspect of your reputation – now and in the future
- Outsiders, not you, will control the perceptions of how you handled the situation

WHAT TO EXPECT

Uncertainty is high and information is in high demand

The “facts” may change rapidly

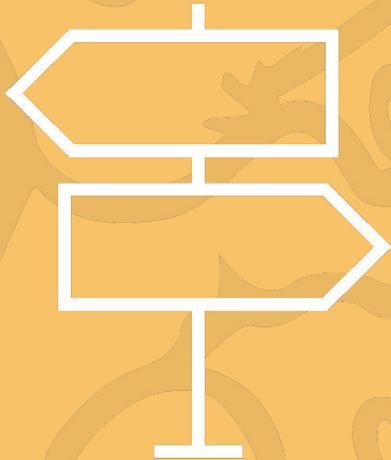

Resources are directed away
from day-to-day operations

Stakeholder trust is threatened

GUIDING PRINCIPLES

- Put people first
- Respond quickly and accurately
- Show empathy and compassion
- Be as transparent as possible
- Become the trusted source of information – let all audiences hear from us first
- When appropriate, follow the authorities' lead
- If you don't have well-articulated positions on COVID-19, Diversity/Equity/Inclusion and other unique challenges to face your organization in 2020, develop them NOW!

WHAT TO DO

COMMUNICATION DO'S

- Show concern
- Speak with one voice
- Take charge quickly
- Be open and responsive
- Stick to the facts
- Share important information in simple, declarative sentences
- Keep your cool
- Correct your mistakes
- Address the perception
- Clearly state actions being taken

WHAT NOT TO DO

COMMUNICATION DON'TS

- Say “no comment”
- Speculate, predict or answer hypothetical questions
- Give long, rambling answers
- Lose your temper
- Get into a debate
- Say anything “off the record”
- Evade, cover up or block access to other sources of information
- Try to answer a question if you don't know the answer
- Assume anything

THE CHANGING MEDIA

CASE STUDIES

ISSUE:

“CANCEL CULTURE”

THE

THE GOAL:

Diffuse the issue in person and online before it grew. Correct misinformation and try to repair relationships.

APPROACH

- Identify avenues of communication
 - Existing relationships: leadership, colleagues, mentors
- Monitor social and traditional media
- Put protocols in place
- Articulate positions
 - Key messages on D/E/I
 - Proactive effort to refute these claims online
- Diffuse traditional media investigation

The bottom line:

This was not an issue of ill-intent, rather of poor communication from an industry that was struggling to stay alive, in addition to struggling with D/E/I issues.

No traditional media coverage ran, and we provided the foundation to minimize reputational damage and rebuild relationships

ISSUE:

NO WIN SITUATION

The year #2020 has put many organizations at the center of no win situations and are in situations where they feel the need to “choose sides.”

- School districts: teachers vs. parents
- Municipalities: police vs. citizens
- Manufacturers: employees (supply) vs. customers (demand)

THE GOAL:

Change the game. Seeing this as traditional “offense vs. defense” puts you in a position to have to choose.

APPROACH

- Be the referee.

- Rather than take a side, can you be the trusted third party source of information?

- There is a need for clarity and facts right now.

- Use your leadership platform to:
 - Provide access and data regarding COVID spread/risk within schools (school districts)
 - Explain policy and procedure, like the role of Police and Fire Commissions (municipal organizations)
 - Post your COVID policies and safeguards on your website and update regularly, making the case for transparency (applies to anyone).

RESULTS

- Leaders receiving recognition for leadership.
- Posting and updating COVID-19 policies, procedures and safeguards provides a clear, timestamped “trail” to employees, the public and the media to point to if there are accusations that an organization isn’t doing enough or the right things to protect safety.
